

LAST CALL FOR SHORT FILMS FOR CINENOVA 2020

CINENOVA has 3000€ in prizes to offer to the best short films made by university students.

The due date to submit films to CINENOVA's second edition ends on the 1st of January 2020. The Interuniversity Film Festival, that will happen from the 5th to the 7th of March in Lisbon, has a 2000€ prize for Best Film submitted and a 1000€ prize for Best Portuguese Film submitted.

Projects can be submitted for free, through the platform FilmFreeway. The submitted films (with a maximum of 30 minutes) must have been produced after January 2017 and while the director was enrolled in a University or equivalent institution. The festival's theme is "Cinema and Knowledge".

The jury will be formed by relevant figures in the Portuguese and international cultural landscape. The regulations to enter the festival and all the information about CINENOVA are available in the temporary website.

About CINENOVA

CINENOVA - Portugal Interuniversity Film Festival, aims to boost film production in a university context and stimulate the debate about the relationship that may exist between Cinema, Knowledge and Communication. It is promoted by NOVA-FCSH and organized by university students and professors. In addition to the screening of films, several parallel activities will be promoted, such as Masterclasses, Debates and Workshops.
